

$~37

* IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

+ W.P.(CRL) 2793/2019

PUSCHPENDER

..... Petitioner

Through: Ms Meenal Duggal, Advocate.

versus

STATE

..... Respondent

Through: Ms Nandita Rao, ASC (CRL.) for GNCTD.

SI Sandeep Kumar, PS Narela.

CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE VIBHU BAKHRU

ORDER

%

27.09.2019

1. The petitioner has filed the present petition, inter alia, seeking parole for a further period of twenty-eight days.
2. The petitioner was convicted under Sections 302/304B/498A/34 of the IPC and sentenced to serve rigorous imprisonment for life and a fine of ₹45,000/-. It is seen that the petitioner has been on furlough for a period of ten weeks during the last eleven months.
3. Ms Rao, learned ASC, states that the petitioner has applied for parole and his application would be decided within a period of one week from today.
4. In view of the above, no further orders are required to be passed in this petition.
5. The petition is dismissed.

VIBHU BAKHRU, J

SEPTEMBER 27, 2019/RK