07.03.2019

The learned counsel for the parents submits that the parents of the husband are ready and willing to accommodate the petitioners in their own home and to extend them full parental care, love and affection and blessings, since they have whole-heartedly accepted their marriage. However, the said parents in-law are not present and the police is yet to verify the aforesaid offer.

Let the ACP of the area concerned look into the matter and assess the existing threat to the petitioners, if any, as well as the willingness of all the parties apropos the aforesaid offer of residence and of the petitioner's security.

Re-notify on 13.05.2019.

In the interim, the parents of both the petitioners may explore the possibility of holding a reception for the petitioners', accepting their marriage and according their blessings to the young couple.
