ORDER

% 08.05.2019

On 08.02.2019, the petitioner was given interim protection with the observations and order, as under :

"The petitioners seek anticipatory bail. They are accused in case FIR No. 0097/18 dated 29.03.2018 registered under sections 376/452/323/328/506/120B Indian Penal Code, 1860 and section 4 of Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 at Police Station, R.K. Puram, Delhi for abetting the main accused in committing an offence under section 376 IPC.

6

The petitioners are said to reside three kilometres away from the main accused and are not related to him; two other persons accused in the same case have been enlarged on bail. The petitioners have no criminal antecedents and are parents of minor children, whom they have to take care of.

In view of the above, the petitioners are directed to join investigations. They shall report to the Investigating Officer on 09.02.2019 at 3.00 pm and on all such dates as may be intimated by the Investigating Officer.

Till the next date of hearing, the petitioners shall not be arrested."

Now, supplementary challan is said to have been filed inter alia against the petitioner. Mr. Srivastava, on instructions, submits that the statement of the prosecutrix under Sec. 164 Cr.P.C. was recorded on 31.03.2018 and forms part of the challan earlier filed and that, no recovery of any nature is to be effected from the petitioner.

Keeping in view the totality of the facts and circumstances, the order dated 08.02.2019 is extended for four weeks from today, during which time, the petitioner shall approach the trial court for seeking regular bail.

Petition stands disposed off accordingly.

Dasti.
