

$~47-48

* IN THE HIGH COURT OF DELHI AT NEW DELHI

+ W.P.(CRL) 709/2019 & CRL.M.A. 5113/2019

+ W.P.(CRL) 711/2019 & CRL.M.A. 5147/2019

RANJEET@ BIHARI

..... Petitioner

Through: Mr. Manish Malik, Mr. Arun Prakash Rai, Ms. Simajtini Paul, Mr. Ashish Balyan and
Mr. Jai Subhash Thakur, Advocates.

Versus

THE STATE (GOVT NCT OF DELHI)

..... Respondent

Through: Ms. Iti Pandey, Advocate for Ms. Kamna
Vohra, ASC with SI Pardeep, P.S.
Begumpur.

CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE NAJMI WAZIRI

ORDER

%

08.03.2019

CrI. M.A. Nos.5113 & 5147 of 2019 (for exemption)

Allowed, subject to all just exceptions.

The applications stand disposed-off.

W.P.(CRL) 709/2019 & 711/2019

Issue notice.

The learned counsel named above accepts notice on behalf of the State.

For the reasons mentioned in the petitions and because of the medical exigency recorded therein, the petitioner's parole is extended for a period of four weeks to enable him to attend to his minor son, who is suffering from abdominal bleeding, on the same terms and conditions, as have been enumerated in the order dated 22.01.2019.

The petitions stand disposed-off in terms of the above.

NAJMI WAZIRI, J.

MARCH 08, 2019

sb