ANIL KUMAR @ANIL JAIN Petitioner

Versus

STATE Respondent

Through: Ms. Neelam Sharma, Additional
Public Prosecutor for respondent-
State with ASI Parveen Kumar
Respondent No.2 in person

CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SUNIL GAUR

ORDER
(ORAL)

Quashing of FIR No. 1533/2015, under Sections 323/354/ 354A/34 of IPC, registered at Police Station Aman Vihar, Delhi is sought on the basis of affidavit of 23rd March, 2019 of respondent No. 2 and on the ground that the misunderstanding which led to registration of the FIR in question, now stands cleared between the parties.

Upon notice, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for respondent-State submits that respondent No.2 present in the Court is the complainant/first-informant of FIR in question and she has been identified to be so, by ASI Parveen Kumar, on the basis of identity proof produced by her.

Respondent No. 2 present in the Court, submits that the misunderstanding, which led to registration of the FIR in question, now stands cleared between the parties. She affirms the contents of her affidavit of 23rd March, 2019 supporting this petition and submits that now, no dispute with petitioner survives and so, to restore cordiality between the parties, who are neighbours, proceedings arising out of the FIR in question be brought to an end.

Supreme Court in Parbatbhai Aahir @ Parbatbhai Bhimsinhbhai Vs. State of Gujarat (2017) 9 SCC 641 has reiterated the parameters for exercising inherent jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR / criminal complaint, which are as under:-

“16.7. As distinguished from serious offences, there may be criminal cases which have an overwhelming or predominant element of a civil dispute. They stand on a distinct footing insofar as the exercise of the inherent power to quash is concerned.

16.8. Criminal cases involving offences which arise from commercial, financial, mercantile, partnership or similar transactions with an essentially civil flavour may in appropriate situations fall for quashing where parties have settled the dispute.

16.9. In such a case, the High Court may quash the criminal proceeding if in view of the compromise between the disputants, the possibility of a conviction is remote and the continuation of a criminal proceeding would cause oppression and prejudice.”

In the facts and circumstances of this case, I find that continuance of proceedings arising out of the FIR in question would be an exercise in futility as the misunderstanding, which led to registration of the FIR in question, now stands cleared amongst the parties.

Accordingly, FIR No. 1533/2015, under Sections 323/354/354A/34 of IPC, registered at Police Station Aman Vihar, Delhi and the proceedings emanating therefrom are hereby quashed.

This petition and application are accordingly disposed of.

Dasti.
