15.04.2019

1. Learned counsel for the petitioners, after some arguments, submitted that the petitioners may be given liberty to move an application before the Trial Court raising all the contentions and pleas as per law including that of the discharge, hence, the petitioners may be allowed to withdraw the petitions.
2. In view of the aforesaid submissions, the petitions are dismissed as withdrawn with the liberty as prayed for. Pending applications are also dismissed as withdrawn.
3. Learned counsel for the petitioners also submitted that the complainant has made the complaint against the petitioners out of vengeance for the purpose of harassing them, hence, during the pendency of the disposal of the application including that of the discharge, the petitioners may be exempted from their personal appearances.
4. The petitioners may move an application for the exemption from their personal appearances and the Trial Court shall consider the same taking into consideration the submissions of the learned counsel for the petitioners, as per law.
5. It is clarified that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the petitions.
