SAYED MASHHOOD AHMAD Petitioner

Through: Mr. Izhar Ahmad, Additional
Public Prosecutor for State with SI
C.P. Singh.
Respondent Nos. 2 to 4 in person.

CORAM:
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SUNIL GAUR

ORDER
(ORAL)

Quashing of FIR No. 1126/2015, under Sections 354-A/323/506 of IPC, registered at Police Station Jamia Nagar, Delhi is sought on the basis of affidavits of respondent Nos. 2 to 4 and on the ground that the misunderstanding which led to registration of the FIR in question, now stands cleared between the parties.

Upon notice, learned Additional Public Prosecutor for respondent-State submits that respondent Nos. 2 to 4, who are present in Court, are the complainants of FIR in question and they have been identified to be so, by SI C.P. Singh, on the basis of identity proof produced by them.

Respondent Nos. 2 to 4, present in the Court submit that the misunderstanding between the parties has been amicably resolved. They affirm the contents of their affidavits and submit that the misunderstanding, which led to registration of the FIR in question, now stands cleared between the parties and now, no grievance against petitioner survives and so, to restore cordiality amongst the parties, who are family friends, the proceedings arising out of the FIR in question be brought to an end.

Supreme Court in Parbatbhai Aahir @ Parbatbhai Bhimsinhbhai Vs. State of Gujarat (2017) 9 SCC 641 has reiterated the parameters for exercising inherent jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR / criminal proceedings, which are as under:-

“16.7. As distinguished from serious offences, there may be criminal cases which have an overwhelming or predominant element of a civil dispute. They stand on a distinct footing insofar as the exercise of the inherent power to quash is concerned.

16.8. Criminal cases involving offences which arise from commercial, financial, mercantile, partnership or similar transactions with an essentially civil flavour may in appropriate situations fall for quashing where parties have settled the dispute.

16.9. In such a case, the High Court may quash the criminal proceeding if in view of the compromise between the disputants, the possibility of a conviction is remote and the continuation of a criminal proceeding would cause oppression and prejudice.”

In the facts and circumstances of this case, I find that continuance of proceedings arising out of the FIR in question would be an exercise in futility as the misunderstanding, which led to registration of the FIR in question, now stands cleared amongst the parties.

Consequently, this petition is allowed subject to costs of ₹10,000/- to be deposited by petitioner with Prime Minister's National Relief Fund within a week from today. Upon placing on record the proof of deposit of costs within a week thereafter and handing over its copy to the Investigating Officer, FIR No. 1126/2015, under Sections 354-A/323/506 of IPC, registered at Police Station Jamia Nagar, Delhi and the proceedings emanating therefrom shall stand quashed qua petitioner.

This petition and application are accordingly disposed of.

Dasti.
