1. This is an application filed by the petitioner under Section 439 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 for grant of bail.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the MLC itself demonstrates that the petitioner carried the injured to the hospital. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submitted that the petitioner is in custody since 16.7.2019, i.e., for 3 months and 21 days as on date. Learned counsel for the petitioner also submitted that the petitioner is not involved in any other criminal offence and no purpose would be served by keeping him in judicial custody.

3. Learned APP, on the instructions of the Investigating Officer, admitted the fact that the petitioner carried the injured to the hospital and is not having any criminal antecedents.

4. Taking into consideration the aforesaid facts, I deem it to be a fit case for the grant of the bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, the petitioner is admitted to bail, subject to his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.25,000/-, with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the Trial Court and further subject to the conditions that the petitioner shall not tamper with the evidence nor shall influence the witnesses or their relatives and that he shall not leave the country without permission of the Trial Court. In case any complaint is received against the petitioner, the prosecution may move an appropriate application in this regard.

5. The bail application is disposed of in above terms.
