%

1. Before the learned senior counsel appearing for the petitioner argues in detail about the re-export of Gold Dore Bars which was initially not allowed by the respondents, it is fairly submitted by the learned counsel for the respondents No.2 to 5, upon instructions from her client, that the respondents are allowing the petitioner to re-export the Gold Dore Bars, on their furnishing shipping bills and in accordance with law.
2. In view of the aforesaid submission by the learned counsel for the respondents No.2 to 5, the main grievance of the petitioner has been brought to an end. This writ petition is accordingly disposed of along with the pending application.

3. Liberty is, however, granted to the petitioner to challenge the action to be initiated by the respondents with regard to payment of demurrage charges etc., before the appropriate forum in accordance with law.
