04.12.2019

The instant petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India read with Section 482 of Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Cr. P.C) has been filed seeking release of the petitioner on parole for one month to attend wedding ceremonies of his brother on 5th and 6th December, 2019.

Learned ASC has opposed the grant of parole to the petitioner on the ground that the conduct of the petitioner was not satisfactory according to the nominal roll. However, the factum of the marriage of his brother has been verified by the SHO, Police Station Krishna Nagar.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case, the petitioner is directed to be released on parole for a period of seven days from the date of his release on his executing personal bond in the sum of Rs.15,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Jail Superintendent, subject to following conditions:

- (i) The petitioner will not leave National Capital Territory of Delhi without prior permission of the Court;
- (ii) He will furnish to the Investigating Officer his mobile number and residential address where he will stay during the period of parole;
- (iii) He will report to the concerned Station House Officer (SHO) / Investigating Officer (IO), on every Monday;
- (iv) In case of any change in his residential address or the mobile number, he will inform the SHO/IO;

The petition is disposed of, in above terms.

A copy of this order be given dasti to learned counsel for the parties under the signature of the Court Master.
