2. The allegations in the FIR are that the complainant was walking on the road when he was apprehended by a boy from behind who had his face covered with a handkerchief. In the scuffle, the handkerchief allegedly slipped and the complainant identified the boy as the co-accused Raju. Subsequently, the petitioners are alleged to have come on the spot and beaten the complainant and thereafter stolen his mobile phone and taken Rs.4000/- from his pocket.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that petitioners have been falsely implicated as the alleged incident is of 01.10.2017 and the complaint was made on 24.07.2018.

4. Case of the prosecution is that a PCR call was received on 01.10.2017 and on investigation the complainant was found to be admitted in hospital having sustained certain injuries. However, no statement was given by the complainant except to say that he was assaulted by someone.
