The petitioner seeks parole for three months for filing a Special Leave Petition in exercise of his constitutional right to seek acquittal against the conviction for which he is undergoing incarceration. The petitioner states that he will be the best person to choose, brief and assist a counsel to file and present his case before the Supreme Court. He also has to make arrangements of funds for the same. His address in Delhi has been verified by the Police. His conduct in jail is stated to be satisfactory.

In the circumstances, the Court finds no impediment in allowing the present petition. Accordingly, the petitioner is granted parole for a period of four weeks from the date of his release. Since it is a legal aid matter, the petitioner seeks that the surety amount be at the minimal. Accordingly, the petitioner shall furnish a personal bond of Rs. 5,000/- with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the Jail Superintendent concerned, subject to the following conditions:-

- (1) The petitioner shall report to the SHO, concerned Police Station Shahdara, Delhi, once a week, on every Tuesday during the period of parole.
