The petitioner's grievance was that its GSTIN registration was cancelled. By the previous orders, this Court had directed the Revenue to explore the possibility of opening the GST portal and reinstating the GSTIN.

Today, it is informed that the portal was opened and the petitioner's GSTIN was reinstated. Learned counsel has produced a copy of the intimation and the relevant returns filed by the petitioner. The intimation is hereby taken on the record.

In view of the statement made, the writ petition is rendered infructuous. The writ petition is accordingly dismissed as infructuous along with the pending application.
