By this petition, the petitioner had sought protection from respondent Nos. 2 and 3 as she had converted her religion and married Mohd. Sahil Respondent Nos. 2 and 3 are present in Court. They state that since the petitioner is major and has married of her own free will and having spoken to her that the decision was of her own free will, they have no cause of grievance and they would not interfere in her happy married life.

In view of the statement of respondent Nos. 2 and 3, the petitioner, who is present in Court, seeks leave to withdraw the present petition.

The petition is dismissed as withdrawn.
