1. The Petitioner, who is the wife of a deceased member of the Central Reserve Police Force ('CRPF'), seeks the grant of the benefit of the 2nd financial upgradation under the Assured Career Progression ('ACP') Scheme. The Petitioner's grievance is that the Respondents have denied such benefit to her husband from the date of his having actually completed 24 years of regular service on the ground that he had not completed the pre-promotional course by that time.

2. The prayers in the present petition stand covered by the decisions of this Court dated 5th January, 2015 in W.P.(C) 22/2015 (Jaswant Singh v. Union of India), 11th October, 2013 in W.P.(C) 6550/2013 (Suraj Bhan v. Union of India), 6th September, 2013 in W.P.(C) 5593/2013 (Jaipal Singh v. Union of India and batch).

3. Accordingly, the petition is allowed with the following directions:

- (i) The Petitioner will be granted the benefit of 2nd financial upgradation under the ACP Scheme from 1st August, 1999 for her husband completing 24 years of regular service, irrespective of his not having completed the pre-promotional course at the time that he completed 24 years of regular service;
- (ii) The Petitioner's husband will be placed in the appropriate pay scale of SI/HC etc. as the case may be (for eg. In the case of SIs Rs. 9300 – 34800 with grade pay of 4200) from the date of completion of 24 years of regular service till the date of his death;
- (iii) The appropriate revised pension orders will be issued and arrears will be paid to the Petitioner within a period of 12 weeks, failing which the Respondents would be liable to pay simple interest at 6% per annum on the arrears for the period of delay.
