09.01.2019

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner as well as respondent No.2 submitted that the matter stands settled between the parties on their own free will without any force, pressure or coercion before the Delhi High Court Mediation and Conciliation Centre vide Settlement Agreement dated 8.1.2019 in terms whereof the petitioner has to pay a sum of Rs.4,50,000/- to the respondent No.2 as a full and final settlement amount.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the Parokar of the petitioner has brought a demand draft bearing No.869131 dated 5.1.2019 drawn on Bank of India in favour of the respondent No.2 for an amount of Rs.4,50,000/ which has been handed over to the respondent No.2 present in the Court.

3. Learned counsel for the parties submitted that in terms of the settlement arrived at between the parties, the parties have agreed that the respondent No.2 shall have no objection if the remaining sentence awarded by the Trial Court is suspended and the petitioner is acquitted by the High Court.

4. It was further agreed between the parties that they shall not file or initiate any complaint, case or proceedings either, Civil or Criminal, against each other in any Court in respect of the present dispute and they shall request this Court to dispose of the present Criminal Revision Petition.

5. Learned counsel for the parties further submitted that the matter be treated as compounded between the parties and be disposed of in terms of the settlement arrived at between the parties.

6. In view of the settlement arrived at between the parties as well as the payment made on behalf of petitioner today in the Court, the matter is allowed to be compounded and the petitioner is hereby acquitted in this case. The concerned Jail Superintendent is directed to release the petitioner from the jail if not required in any other case.

7. The present revision petition is disposed of in the above terms. CRL.M.(BAIL) 4/2019 also stands disposed of.

Order dasti under signatures of the Court Master.
