CRL.M.A. 2791/2019

The petitioner is present in person and states that it is unfortunate that the complainant has formed the impression that she meant to humiliate, denigrate or offend his sensibilities or affront his dignity in any manner; thereby leading to the filing of the complaint and the initiation of corollary proceedings against her. She submits that it was in a moment of anger and weakness of discretion, she may have spoken in a sharp manner but it was never meant to hurt the sentiments or dignity of the complainant in any manner whatsoever. However, if the same has been construed offensively in any way, she expresses her deep regret and indeed extends an apology to the complainant.

In view of the above, the learned counsel for the complainant/R-2 submits that the parties may well be referred to the Delhi High Court

Mediation and Conciliation Centre for the amicable settlement of this lis and other proceedings between the parties.

At joint request, the case is referred to the aforesaid Centre, where the parties shall appear today at 3.00 pm. The case shall be assigned to a Senior Mediator.

The learned counsel for the State ensures the Court that no coercive action shall be taken against the petitioner till the next date of hearing.

List on 19.02.2019.
