ORAL ORDER

2 16-01-2020 Heard learned counsel for the appellant and learned
Spl. PP for the State.

This is an appeal under Section 14(A)(2) of the SC/ST Act against the refusal of prayer for anticipatory bail vide order dated 06.11.2019 passed by learned 1st Addl. Sessions Judge cum Special Judge, SC/ST Act, Banka in connection with Rajoun P.S. Case No. 60 of 2019, registered under Sections 363, 365, 323, 354, 379/34, 302 and 201 of the Indian Penal Code, Section 27 of the Arms Act and Section 3(1)(w) of the SC/ST Act.

Accusation is that in the evening of 06.02.2019, six persons named in the F.I.R., including the petitioner, came at the house of informant and started abusing to the informant. When informant made protest then all caused assault to the informant through lathi, danda, fist and slaps as a result, she sustained injury at her legs and palm of the hand. At that time, her daughter-in-law Puja Devi was, forcibly, taken away by them and her son Suraj was also searched by them.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of appellant submits that, in fact, Puja Devi, whose name has been detailed in the F.I.R. is the daughter of co-accused Makeswar Mandal, she was kidnapped by the son of informant of the present case regarding which Rajoun P.S. Case No. 64 of 2019 was instituted under Section 366(A)/34 of the Indian Penal Code due to that reason, the present case has been lodged. Further submission is that appellant is none, but nephew of Makeswar Mandal.

Having considered the facts and circumstances of the case and the nature of allegation against the appellant, I am not inclined to grant pre-arrest bail to the appellant. Accordingly, his prayer for grant of pre-arrest bail stands rejected.

Accordingly, this Criminal Appeal is dismissed.
