ORAL ORDER

(The proceedings of the Court are being conducted through Video Conferencing and the Advocates joined the proceedings through Video Conferencing from their residence.)

2 18-06-2020 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Section 379 of the Indian Penal Code.

Allegation against some unknown miscreants is to have forcibly taken away the tempo of the informant.

It has been submitted on behalf of the petitioner that he is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case. It is further submitted that the case is of the year 2014, and after lapse of 5 years, the petitioner has been implicated in this case. It has been submitted that name of the petitioner has surfaced in this case on the confessional statement made by the co-accused Prabhat Das and except said confessional statement, there is no any other incriminating material against the petitioner. Petitioner has no criminal antecedent.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, let the petitioner named above be released on anticipatory bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of four weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 20,000/- with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned court below where the case is pending in connection with Sabour P.S. Case No.339 of 2014 subject to the condition as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C with following conditions:-

(1) Bailors should be local having sufficient immovable property within the jurisdiction of the court concerned.

(2) Petitioner shall co-operate in the trial and shall be present on each and every date fixed by the court and his absence on two consecutive dates without proper and reasonable reason will be sufficient to cancel his bail bond.

(3) If the petitioner tampers with the evidence or the witnesses of the case, in that case, prosecution will be at liberty to move for cancellation of bail of the petitioner.
