CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD KUMAR SINHA
ORAL ORDER

2 24-01-2020 This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail in connection with Complaint Case No. 553 of 2018, disclosing offences under Sections 498A/34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 4 of D.P. Act.

Petitioner happens to be the husband of the complainant and there is allegation of demand of rupees one lakh, for that, subjecting her to cruelty and harassment.

Submission of learned counsel for the petitioner is that the allegation is false and concocted. He is still ready to keep her with dignity and care.

Heard learned APP also.

Having heard both sides, in view of the stand of the petitioner, this application is disposed of with a direction to the petitioner, above named, to surrender before the learned court below on 10.02.2020, on surrender, he will be released on provisional bail to the satisfaction of the learned court below. In the meantime, the court below shall issue a notice to the opposite party no.2 and on her appearance and showing her desire to reside with the petitioner, the petitioner has to keep her with dignity and care and take her from the court itself and on that, the provisional bail granted to the petitioner shall be extended for further period of six months. During that period, both the parties shall appear before the learned court below in the third week of each month, so that the court below shall watch the marital relationship and conduct of both the parties. Once being satisfied with the conduct of both the parties, especially, the conduct of the petitioner, the court below shall confirm the bail bonds of the petitioner, otherwise, he is free to pass any other order or orders, which may deem fit and proper, including cancelling the bail bonds of the petitioner.

It is also made clear that once she appeared and made any serious allegation against the petitioner considering the nature of the allegation, and after hearing both the parties, learned court below is at liberty to cancel the bail bonds of the petitioner.
