APP for State

Petitioner apprehends arrest in connection with Dagarua
P.S. Case no. 24 of 2019 instituted for the offence under Section 304B of the Indian Penal Code.

The prosecution case is that daughter of the informant was married with the petitioner about 6 years back. On 15.08.2018, she was beaten and ousted from her matrimonial home. Later, the petitioner (son-in-law) came and took back the informant's daughter. On 27.08.2018 the informant came to know hat her daughter has died at her in-laws. The petitioner has been made accused along with nine other family members for killing of the informant's daughter.

It is submitted by the petitioner's counsel that prior to said complaint case having been filed on 26.11.2018, the police had registered a U.D. case dated 27.08.2018. It is submitted by the petitioner's counsel that it is a false case and based merely on suspicion. It is also submitted that the informant has subsequently filed a petition in the court, wherein, the informant has clearly stated that under misconception and on being instigated by other persons, the complaint had been lodged. The informant has stated in her petition that her daughter (deceased) was not in her proper sense, and as such, she has committed suicide by handing herself.

The learned APP for the State has opposed the prayer for bail.

Considering the aforesaid facts, prayer of the petitioner for grant of anticipatory bail is allowed. In the event of surrender/arrest of the petitioner, named above, before the court below, within four (04) weeks from today, he shall be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the J.M. 1st Class, Purnea, in connection with Dagarua P.S. Case no. 24 of 2019, subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) Cr. P.C. subject to the following conditions:-

(i) That one of the bailors will be a close relative of the petitioner who will give an affidavit giving genealogy as to how he is related with the petitioner. The bailor will also undertake to inform the Court if there is any change in the address of the petitioner.

(ii) That the petitioner will be well represented on each date and if he fails to do so on two consecutive dates, his bail bond will be liable to be cancelled.
