The allegation is regarding the petitioners having engaged in scuffle with another group of people on account of certain dispute having taken place while they were gambling and when the police had come on the spot, they had also engaged in rough behaviour with the police personnel.

The learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in the present case. It is further submitted that as far as Karai Parsurai P.S.Case No. 153 of 2019 is concerned, the same has been lodged by the other side pertaining to the very same incident, out of which present FIR arises and except the said case, the petitioners are having a clean antecedent. It is further submitted that the petitioners have been falsely implicated on account of personal enmity and village politics.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, I deem it fit and proper to admit the petitioners to the privilege of anticipatory bail.

Accordingly, the petitioners are directed to be enlarged on anticipatory bail, in the event of their arrest or
