CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE MADHURESH PRASAD
ORAL ORDER

3 26-02-2020 Heard learned counsel for petitioner and learned counsel for the respondent-State.

Learned counsel for petitioner submits that alleging irregularity in selection of Respondent no.8 as Anganwari Sevika, the petitioner approached the District Programme Officer, Bettiah West Champaran (Respondent no.5) by filing Case No. 46 of 2015 (Annexure-7) since the irregularity in selection of the private respondent was based on an allegation regarding the date of birth being claimed by the respondent no.8 which was undue based on the testimonial, the petitioner had also lodged complaint case no. 2674 © of 2015.

The counsel for petitioner submits that the C.J.M. Bettiah, under judgment dated 05.12.2019, has come to a conclusion regarding the falsity of the petitioner's claim regarding the date of birth. The writ petition, however, does not disclose that findings were brought to the notice of the District Programme Officer. If the Criminal Court has passed any order which the petitioner wants to rely upon to challenge, or for having set aside the selection of Respondent no.8 as Anganwari Sevika, it is for the petitioner to place the same before the District Programme Officer in his pending appeal no. 46 of 2015.

With the liberty as aforesaid the writ petition is dismissed.
