CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE PARTHA SARTHY

ORAL ORDER

3 28.08.2020 Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned A.P.P
for the State through video conferencing.

The instant application for anticipatory bail has been filed by the petitioner apprehending his arrest in connection with Turkauliya P.S. Case No.668 of 2019 registered under sections 25(1-B)(a), 26 and 35 of the Arms Act.

As per allegation in the F.I.R, on secret information
having been received about an accused namely, Rakesh Sahni having reached his home and that he would soon escape, a raid was conducted along with local chowkidar. In the raid, the said Rakesh Sahni was caught and in his confessional statement took the name of several accused persons including the petitioner herein as being involved in the Hira Yadav murder case. It is further stated that raids were conducted and the petitioner was not found at his home. On further raid being conducted incriminating articles were recovered from the possession of other accused persons including Bodha Yadav.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that from the F.I.R. itself it would transpire that except for the name of the petitioner transpiring in the confessional statement of a co-accused made before police, there is no other material against him. The incriminating articles have been recovered from the house of Ashok Yadav and Bodha Yadav. It is lastly submitted that besides the instant case, the petitioner was falsely implicated in one another case but in the said case also he was not named in the F.I.R.

The application for bail is opposed by learned APP for the State.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case including the submissions made on behalf of the petitioner and non-recovery of any incriminating article from the possession of the petitioner, the Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. The petitioner is directed to surrender in the Court below within a period of eight weeks from today and in the event of his arrest or surrender in connection with Turkauliya P.S. Case No. 668 of 2019, he will be enlarged on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs 10,000.- (Rupees Ten Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Motihari, East Champaran, subject to the conditions as laid down in section 438 (2) of Criminal Procedure Code.
