As per allegation in the FIR, on secret information having been received it is stated that a raid was conducted by the informant on the house of the petitioner and a stolen motorcycle was recovered from a room inside the gate of the petitioner's house.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that that no incriminating article as alleged has been recovered. Neither the petitioner was present at the alleged place of recovery nor does he have anything to do with the seized motorcycle. The petitioner has no criminal antecedent.

The application for bail is opposed by learned counsel for the State.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and on going through the records of the case, it transpires that there has been no investigation on the point as to whom does the said stolen motorcycle belongs to. Further, taking into consideration the submission made on behalf of the petitioner together with the petitioner not having any criminal antecedent, the Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail.
