At the outset, the learned counsel for the petitioners seeks to withdraw the present petition qua the petitioner no. 2. Accordingly, the same stands dismissed as withdrawn.

The allegation is regarding the daughter of the informant having been burnt allegedly by the accused persons on account of non-fulfilment of the demand for dowry.

food on account of catching fire and there is no complicity of the petitioner no. 1 who happens to be the mother-in-law of the deceased victim lady. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and considering submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, I deem it fit and appropriate to admit the petitioner no. 1 to the privilege of anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the petitioner no. 1, in the event of her arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt/ production of a copy of this order, is directed to be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rs.
