CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE CHAKRADHARI SHARAN SINGH

ORAL ORDER

3 01-06-2020 Heard learned counsel for the parties.

This application for regular bail arises out of Sarai P.S. Case No. 176 of 2019, disclosing offences punishable under Sections 341, 323, 448, 387, 307, 504, 506 and 379/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

There is direct allegation against the petitioner of having opened fire and injured the victim. On medical examination, injury on the victim has been found to have been caused by firearm which thus corroborates the case of the prosecution. The petitioner has criminal antecedent as can be seen from the statement made in paragraph 3 of the application. There are as many as eight criminal cases of serious nature registered against him.

Mr. Thakur, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner has argued that he has remained in custody for nearly a year and no tangible purpose would be served if the petitioner is compelled to remain in custody any further after completion of investigation.

Considering the fact that there is direct allegation against the petitioner of having fired the shot leading to firearm injury and his criminal antecedent, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner bail for the present.

This application is rejected.

The petitioner shall be at liberty to renew his prayer for bail if the trial doesn't commence within nine months from today.

(Chakradhari Sharan Singh, J)
