ORAL ORDER

2. 01-07-2020 Heard learned counsel for the parties through video conferencing.

Petitioners apprehend their arrest in Wazirganj P.S. Case No. 532 of 2017, corresponding to G.R.No. 7869 of 2017, registered for the offence under Section 307 & other allied sections of the Indian Penal Code.

It is submitted on behalf of petitioners that there is general and omnibus allegation and no specific overt act has been attributed against the petitioners. There is land dispute between the parties, as a result of which, some scuffle took place. In this case, altogether 21 named and 25-30 unknown persons have been made accused.

However, learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the bail application of the petitioners and submitted that these petitioners alongwith others, armed with different weapons, were assaulting one Arun Kumar and when police party came and tried to save the injured, they (accused) also attacked on the police party, in which, two police personnel received grievous injuries on the vital part of the body.

Considering the aforesaid facts, I am not inclined to extend the privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

The anticipatory bail application stands dismissed.
