On secret information that liquor is being sold in huge quantity, houses of three persons were raided but no incriminating substance was found. Later, a wheeler which was seized and a seizure memo was prepared. Some arrest also was reportedly made. In the meanwhile, one of the house owners misbehaved with the officer-in-charge of the police station who was leading the raiding team and was a woman. On the call by the accused persons, many persons of the locality and from neighborhood arrived and made it difficult for the police party to perform their duties.
