The petitioner in the present case is apprehending his arrest in connection with Laxmipur P.S. Case No. 427 of 2019 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 447, 341, 323, 307, 504, 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner and the informant are cousin brother who seems to have indulged in a fight because of some land dispute and right to easement. It is submitted that there is one injury caused by this petitioner on the head of the informant which is grievous in nature.

Learned APP for the State has opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner. It is submitted that on perusal of the injury report of the informant it would appear that lacerated wound on head (left parietal region) has been noticed which is grievous in nature. Another injury as well on the body and the grievous injury has been specifically attributed to this petitioner.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the gravity of the offence alleged and the kind of the materials available on the record, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. His prayer for anticipatory bail is, thus, refused.

In case the petitioner surrenders and prays for regular bail before learned court below within four weeks from today, his prayer for regular bail shall be considered on its own merit without being prejudiced by the present order.
