APP for the State through video conference.

2. The petitioner is in custody since 14.01.2020 in connection with Kateya P.S. Case No. 08 of 2020 for the alleged offences under Sections 341, 323, 307 IPC as well as Section 37(c) of the Bihar Prohibition and Excise (Amendment) Act, 2018.

The allegations are denied by the petitioner, submitting that the informant's daughter sustained injury when she fell on the road and hit her head on some sharp object. No prior dispute, enmity or any other motive has been assigned to the petitioner, who claims clean antecedents.

4. Learned APP appears and opposes the bail petition, submitting on the basis of the order of the learned Additional Sessions Judge II that the informant's daughter has sustained injury on the left side of her head caused by sharp cutting weapon and was grievous in nature.
