The petitioner is apprehending his arrest in a case registered for the offence punishable under Sections 302, 120(B)/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and has falsely been implicated in this case at the instance of his enemies and on mere conjecture and surmises. The petitioner is not named in the FIR, but his name has been surfaced in course of supervision of the S.D.P.O., Forbesganj vide para- 187 of the case diary. It further submits that the allegation is totally false, baseless and absurd and the petitioner was remanded in another case bearing Narpatganj P.S. Case No. 187/2019 on 23.03.2019 and he was granted bail by the Hon'ble High Court, Patna vide Cr. Misc. No. 37574/19 dated 25.06.2019 and he furnished his bail bond on 03.07.2019 whereas, the alleged occurrence is said to be taken place on 08.05.2019.

Learned APP for the State opposes the prayer for bail petition and submits that the name of the petitioner has been figured in course of supervision note of the S.D.P.O., Forbesganj mentioned para-187 of the case diary regarding his conspiracy in the alleged occurrence or assaulting the father and elder brother of the informant by means of deadly weapons including the fir arms and due to that they sustained injury on their persons and died. The petitioner was in custody since 23.03.2019 before the date of occurrence and released from the jail on 03.07.2019, but the name of the wife of this petitioner namely Renubala Das has also been surfaced in the supervision note of the S.D.P.O., Forbesganj.

In the aforesaid facts and circumstances, there is double murder, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. Accordingly, the prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is rejected in connection with Narpatganj (Basmatiya) P. S. Case No. 281 of 2019 from the Court of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Araria.
