CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANJANI KUMAR SHARAN
ORAL ORDER

3 10-09-2020 This case has been heard through video-conferencing.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned
A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in Masaurhi
P.S. Case No. 54 of 2018 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 302, 201 & 120B/34 of the Indian Penal Code pending in the Court of learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Masaurhi.

While the informant was on Gasti, he received informant that one unknown female dead body was lying in the field of Dhanichak village. When the informant reached there he found that several villagers were assembled at that place and one unknown female dead body was lying in the field of Abhimanyu Kumar and Mukesh in village Nura. The blood was oozing from her neck. Thereafter, he informed to the Officer-in-Charge of Masaurhi Police Station and the F.I.R. was instituted against the unknown.

It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that no such occurrence as alleged ever took place. He has been falsely implicated in this case. The F.I.R. is against the unknown. The allegation levelled against the petitioner is not specific rather general and omnibus in nature. It is further submitted that except the confessional statement of the co-accused nothing is against the petitioner. No witness has named the petitioner as a person involved in the occurrence. Petitioner has no criminal antecedent.

Learned APP for the State vehemently opposing the bail petition submitted that the petitioner in association with other co-accused has slated the neck of the deceased and threw her dead body in a field. Hence, the petitioner does not deserve anticipatory bail.

Considering the facts and circumstances of case, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail. The prayer for anticipatory bail of the petitioner is hereby rejected. However, the petitioner is directed to surrender before the learned Court below within six weeks from today and seek regular bail and the learned Court below would pass order on the same very day in accordance with law without being prejudiced by this order.
