Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and Shri Rajednra Nath Jha, learned A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Complaint Case No. 1007 of 2019 for the offence registered under Sections 323 and 498(A)/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The complainant has alleged that she has been tortured mentally and physically by the petitioner-husband and other accused persons on account of non-fulfillment of the demand for dowry.

The learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner is innocent, he has been falsely implicated in the present case and is having a clean antecedent. It is further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to keep his wife with due honour and dignity.

Per contra, the learned A.P.P. for the State has vehemently opposed the prayer for bail.

The learned court below is further directed to take a final call with regard to either confirming the provisional bail to be granted to be petitioner or cancelling the same subject to outcome of the mediation proceedings as also upon consideration of the case of the petitioner on merits, without being prejudiced by the dismissal of his anticipatory bail petition earlier, by the learned court below.

In the meantime, for a period of four weeks from today, no coercive steps shall be taken against the petitioner herein.

The present petition stands disposed off on the aforesaid terms.
