Petitioners apprehend arrest in connection with Goh

The prosecution story in brief lodged by one Lalita Devi is that her sister in-law (Nanad) namely, Sarita Devi was married to one Jagarnath Singh about 15-20 years back and she was issueless. It has further been alleged that on 29.12.2019 the Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the petitioners have not committed any offence in the manner alleged and they have got no criminal antecedents. Learned counsel further submits that the petitioners are brother-in-law (Dewar) and nephew of husband of the deceased. They are living separately from the family of the deceased and as per the First Information Report there is specific allegation against the husband of the deceased who is in jail custody. Learned counsel further submits that the occurrence has allegedly taken place on 29.12.2019 and the present First Information Report has been lodged on 6.1.2020. Learned counsel also submits that there is no allegation against the petitioners of torturing or ill-treating the deceased.

Having regard to the submissions made by the parties and taking into consideration the materials on record and the fact that petitioners have got no criminal antecedents, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

Accordingly, in the event of arrest or surrender before the court below within six weeks from today, petitioners, above named, shall be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail
