3      25-11-2020                      Since as of now the Courts have not resumed normal physical hearing, the matter has been listed today for consideration through video conferencing.

The learned counsels are appearing and making submissions from their residence. The Court Master and Secretary are also part of this virtual Court proceedings from their homes, all with the aid of audio visual technology.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned APP for the State.

The petitioner seeks bail in connection with Rajapakar P.S. Case No.200 of 2019, G.R. No.4737/2019 registered for the offence punishable under Section 414/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

One Anil Rai was apprehended in connection with Rajapakar P.S. Case No.199 of 2019. The house of various persons, including that of the petitioner, has been raided upon disclosure made by him. Chocolates were recovered from the petitioner's house in a jar and in packets.

Petitioner's counsel submits that the petitioner's implication is due to his criminal antecedents. He denies and disputes the recovery of chocolates from his house. He has been remanded in this case on 30.09.2019 after he was apprehended in connection with Rajapakar P.S. Case No.199 of 2019.

Learned APP for the State has opposed the prayer for bail. It is submitted that there is recovery of chocolates from the petitioner's house and he has criminal antecedents.

Considering the rival submissions, this Court is inclined to allow the petitioner's prayer for bail.

Accordingly, let the petitioner, above named, be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Shri Rajnish Ranjan, ACJM-XIII-cum-Sub-Judge-XIV, Hajipur (Vaishali), in connection with Rajapakar P.S. This Court would expect that the petitioner's counsel would honour his undertaking in the instant proceedings regarding supply of the requisite court fee etc. within two weeks from the date he is called upon to do so by the office.
