ORAL ORDER

4 05-03-2020 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned A.P.P. for the State.

This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail in connection with Kochadhaman PS case no. 114 of 2019 registered for the offences punishable under Section 376 of Indian Penal Code.

The allegation, according to the prosecution, is that the informant's sister was married 08 years ago with one Deban Lal Sharma, residing in the district of Kishanganj and at the time of marriage, the informant is said to have gone along with her sister to her in-laws house where she was introduced to one Lalit Sharma who had committed rape upon her and subsequently also, he used to engage in physical relationship with the informant, however upon the parents of the informant having put pressure on the said co-accused person namely Lalit Sharma for solemnizing marriage, he refused to do so.

The learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the petitioners have got no role to play in commission of rape and if anyone has got complicity in the matter, it is the said Lalit Sharma. It is further submitted that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in the present case and are having clean antecedent.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioners, I deem it fit and appropriate to admit the petitioners to the privilege of anticipatory bail. Accordingly, the abovenamed petitioners, in the event of their arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt/ production of a copy of this order, are directed to be released on anticipatory bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Rs. Ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Kishanganj in connection with Kochadhaman PS case no. 114 of 2019 subject to the conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of Code of Criminal Procedure.
