ORAL ORDER

4 09-01-2020 This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail in connection with Danapur P. S. Case No. 522 of 2019, disclosing offences under Sections 341, 307, 385 and 34 of IPC.

As per F.I.R. there is allegation against the petitioners of demand of rangdari and for not paying the same, they have fired on the informant, on hulla, people assembled.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioners is that as there was some dues with the informant, when he demanded the same, the present case has been filed and further no empty cartridges were found from the place of occurrence.

Heard learned A.P.P. also, who has opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail. It further appears that petitioner no.1 is an accused in similar type of case.

Having heard both sides, in view of the submissions, made above, I am not inclined to grant privilege of anticipatory bail to the petitioners. They have to surrender before the learned court below and make prayer for regular bail, the same shall be considered on its own merit, without being prejudiced by order of this Court.

With the aforesaid, this application is dismissed.
