CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ANIL KUMAR UPADHYAY
ORAL ORDER

6 04-03-2020 Noticing the explanation furnished by the opposite parties in the show cause, the Court is of the view that there is no deliberate and willful disobedience of the direction issued by this Court.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that the respondents have not considered the case of the petitioners no. 1 & 2 on the ground that no person below in the merit list has been considered for appointment. Although, there is direction of this Court with regard to validity of the degree obtained from Algappa University.

The claim of the petitioners has not been defeated on the ground that the petitioners has obtained the degree from Algappa University. The stand of the opposite parties is that no person below in the merit list has been appointed.

Mr. S.B.K. Manglam would admit that there is no direction about the appointment against the vacancy.

In the aforesaid circumstances, the present proceeding is dropped. The application is disposed of with a liberty to the petitioners to approach the competent authority for taking appropriate decision with regard to filling of the unfilled vacancy on the post of Librarian.

With the aforesaid, the present application stands disposed of.

In the event, the petitioners file representation, raising grievance as to the availability of post, the competent authority will take appropriate decision at the earliest, preferably within a period of four months from the date of receipt/production of a copy of this order.
