ORAL ORDER

9 17-12-2020 Heard learned counsel for the petitioners as well as learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the State.

Petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Parbatta P.S. Case No. 15 of 2019 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 304(B), 364, 201/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Petitioner no. 1 happens to be married NANAD, petitioner no. 2 happens to be mother-in-law and petitioner no. 3 happens to be younger brother-in-law of the deceased.

Although, petitioners are named in the first information report but no specific overt-act has been attributed against them and general and vague allegation of demand of dowry has been levelled against the petitioners.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that according to prosecution case itself, the marriage of deceased had taken place with co-accused Manish Mandal five years ago and after marriage deceased gave birth to two children out of the aforesaid wedlock. Learned counsel of the petitioners further submits that aforesaid fact goes to show that deceased was leading her married life happily and peacefully. He further submits that as a matter of fact, due to some petty family dispute deceased might have committed suicide. Learned counsel of the petitioners further points out that moreover, husband of the deceased has already surrendered before the court below.

Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances as well as submissions of the parties, this anticipatory bail petition is allowed and it is ordered that petitioners, in the event of their arrest/ surrender within six weeks from the date of receipt of this order to the court concerned, shall be released on bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs 10,000/- (ten thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Khagaria in Parbatta P.S.

Case No. 15 of 2019, G.R. No. 82 of 2019, subject to conditions as laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
