ORAL ORDER

2 10-01-2020 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned APP for the State.

The petitioner seeks regular bail in connection with Tatarpur P.S. Case No. 76 of 2019 for the offence punishable under Sections 323, 307, 504, 506, 354/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The allegation is regarding the accused persons including the petitioner herein having arrived at the house of the informant and when the husband of the informant had come out of the house, the petitioner herein is stated to have assaulted the husband of the informant with the butt of the pistol, resulting in injury on the right eyebrow of the husband of the informant. It is further alleged that the other accused persons had tried to outrage the modesty of the informant.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is innocent and is languishing in custody since 02.06.2019.
It is further submitted that though the petitioner is accused in one other case lodged by the same informant, however, he is on bail in the said case. It is further case of the petitioner that no offence under Section 307 of the I.P.C. is made out inasmuch as if the petitioner had intention of killing the husband of the informant, he would have fired from his country made pistol and not hit the husband of the informant by the butt of the pistol. Lastly, it is submitted that the petitioner is a young boy, having deep roots in the society and is not likely to flee from the process of the law.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, I deem it fit and proper to direct for release of the petitioner on bail.

Accordingly, the petitioner, above named, is directed to be enlarged on regular bail on furnishing bail bonds of Rs. 10,000/- with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned C.J.M., Bhagalpur in connection with Tatarpur P.S. Case No. 76 of 2019.
