ORAL ORDER

(Per: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE HEMANT KUMAR SRIVASTAVA)

5. 08-01-2020 Heard learned counsel appearing for the appellant as well as learned counsel appearing for the State.

Learned counsel for the appellant submits that the appellant filed writ petition on several grounds, but the learned Single Judge confined him towards only one ground and as a matter of fact, the appellant had raised several other points before the learned Single Judge, but the aforesaid points were not considered by the learned Single Judge.

In view of the aforesaid submissions, in our view, the appellant ought to have preferred review petition before the learned Single Judge, because there is nothing on the record in support of contention of learned counsel for the appellant.

Accordingly, this appeal stands dismissed.

However, the appellant may file review petition before the learned Single Judge.
