CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE ARVIND SRIVASTAVA
ORAL ORDER

2      04-02-2020                      Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned A.P.P. for the State.

The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Complaint Case No. 162 of 2018 for the offence punishable under Section 4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner, who is of clean antecedent, is innocent and has not committed any offence. In fact, the complaint petition has been filed against altogether twelve person but the police submitted charge-sheet against one Ashok Kumar Singh and has also submitted final form against the rest of the co-accused, which is evident from Annexure-2. As a matter of fact, the petitioner happens to be husband of the complainant and he has filed a matrimonial case against the complainant for ill behavior and her adultery as she has illicit relation with another person, which is evident from Annexure-4. Moreover, the complainant used to live with one Ashok Kumar Singh and against whom charge-sheet has also been filed, which is evident from Annexure-3. Hence, the petitioner may be granted the privilege of anticipatory bail.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, let the, above named, petitioner in the event of his arrest or surrender before the court below within a period of four weeks be released on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned S.D.J.M., Rohtas, Sasaram in connection with Complaint Case No. 162 of 2018 subject to the conditions laid down under Section 438(2) of the Cr.P.C.
