The petitioners apprehend their arrest in connection with Ramgarh P.S. Case No.153 of 2017 registered under Sections 147, 149, 341, 323, 353, 504 and 506 of the Indian Penal Code.

The accusation is that on 19.06.2017, the informant along with other police personnel proceeded to apprehend the petitioners, accused of Gurua P.S. Case No.48 of 2017 instituted for the offences under Sections 406, 341, 504 and 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code and Sections 3/4 of the Dowry Prohibition Act and after apprehending them, when the informant along with other police personnel was returning, at that time, 60-70 persons after surrounding the police vehicle, started raising objection against the aforesaid persons being apprehended. While the informant along with other police personnel tried to convince them but all started pelting stones and causing assault to them through lathi, danda, bricks and stones. Out of the aforesaid 60-70 persons, 15 persons were identified by the local chowkidar.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that, in fact, while after being apprehended, the petitioners were being taken by the informant along with other personnel, some unknown persons made objections but the petitioners did not take any step to flee away from there. Further submission is that the petitioners have no criminal antecedent except in Gurua P.S. Case No.48 of 2017, as detailed in paragraph-3 to this application, which was instituted by one Virendra Singh, who had tried to settle the marriage of his daughter in the family of the petitioners.

Having considered the facts and the circumstances of the case, let the petitioners, above named, in the event of their arrest or surrender by them within six weeks from today, be enlarged on bail on their furnishing bail bond of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand) each with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Kaimur, Bhabhua, in connection with Ramgarh P.S.
