ORAL ORDER

3 02-07-2020 Heard Mr. Arvind Kumar Sinha, learned Advocate for the petitioner and Mr. Nirmal Kumar Sinha, learned APP for the State.

The petitioner was granted provisional anticipatory bail vide order dated 11.04.2018 passed in Cr. Misc. No. 63290 of 2017.

However, the petitioner was directed to deposit
Rs. 8,20,000/- in four equal installments by 15th of every month through Demand Draft in the name of the Finance Company. It was clearly specified in the order referred to above that only after the entire amount of

Rs. 8,20,000/- would be paid, the provisional anticipatory bail of the petitioner shall be confirmed. If the petitioner, it was directed, made any default in making payment of single installment his provisional anticipatory bail would be liable to be cancelled.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that because of non-communication of the order on time, the installment could not be paid on 15th of every month.

However, now the petitioner is ready to make payments within a period of three months. It is only on this assertion on behalf of the petitioner that this Court has been persuaded to extend the period of provisional anticipatory bail for a further period of three months to be counted from today.

If the petitioner does not make the entire payment of Rs. 8,20,000/- by that time and obtains a receipt for the same, his provisional anticipatory bail shall stand automatically cancelled. Such condition has been fixed in this order taking into account that no notice has been issued to the opposite parties.

The order dated 11.04.2018 stands modified to the extent indicated above.
