The petitioner apprehends his arrest in connection with Rosera P.S. Case no. 309 of 2014, registered under Sections 384 and 387 of the Indian Penal Code.

The accusation is that at about 6.30 P.M. on 10.10.2014, Kundan Singh (Petitioner) along with his friend, boarding on motorcycle, came at the shop of informant Bhola Sahu and made demand ransom of Rs. Five Lakh and he also told that earlier, on two occasions, letters had been sent to him for the aforesaid demand, but the aforesaid demand had not been fulfilled and he also gave threatening to kill him along with his family members and removed from the shop and land. The shop of the informant is situated at Gudri Bazar near Neemtala Chitrapanjir temple, Rosera in the name of Maa Kanyadan Jewelers. It is alleged that the occurrence is taken place since the purchase of the said land.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is the resident of adjacent mohalla, where the shop of the informant is situated. Further submission is that, in fact, petitioner had purchased jewellery from the shop of the informant and when he went there for changing the same, the informant was not ready and only to give pressure to not change the jewellery, purchased by the petitioner, the informant lodged the present case. It would appear from the case diary, which is up to paragraph No. 48, that none of the witnesses present nearby the shop of the informant has supported the prosecution case and they have only stated that informant had disclosed that ransom was demanded.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, let the above named petitioner, be released on bail, in the event of his arrest or surrender before the learned Court below within a period of four weeks from today, on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 10,000/- (Ten thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned 1st Addl.
