CORAM: HONOURABLE MR. JUSTICE VINOD KUMAR SINHA
ORAL ORDER

3 20-01-2020 Petitioner seeks regular bail in connection with Athmalgola P. S. Case No. 18 of 2019 registered for the offences punishable under Sections 302/34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 27 of the Arms Act.

Case of double murder and as the informant was sleeping at the place of occurrence, petitioner slashed the throat of Umesh Pandit and the throat of Prakash Yadav was also cut.

Submission of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that there are so many contradictions in the statement of the informant. As per the informant, after the occurrence, he informed his family members and went to his sasural, but the family members has examined during the investigation and from paragraphs 7 and 8 it has come on record that after the occurrence, they have come to know in the morning about the murder of two persons and the conduct of the informant, i.e. instead of going to his house also creates doubt his credibility. It has further been submitted that petitioner is in custody since 18.02.2019.

Heard learned A.P.P. also, who has opposed the prayer for bail stating that at present there is statement of the informant that he was sleeping there and petitioner is one of the main assailant.

Having heard both sides, in view of the submissions, I am not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

With the above observations, this application is dismissed.
