punishable under Sections 420, 406, 504 and 506/34 of the Indian Penal Code and Section 138 of N.I. Act.

The allegation is regarding the daughters of the petitioner having befriended the informant whereafter the informant is said to have given loan of a sum of Rs. One lakh in cash and Rs. Fifty thousand by way of cheque to the petitioner herein, however, upon demand the same was not returned and the petitioner had abused the informant.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. It is further submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to return back the account by demand draft, however, there is no proof of payment of Rs. One lakh to the informant.

This Court deems it fit and proper to grant bail to the petitioner herein subject to deposit of Rs. 50,000/- with the Nazarat of the learned Civil Court at Bettiah.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, I deem it fit and proper to direct for release of the petitioner, immediately upon deposit of the aforesaid sum of Rs. 50,000/- in the Nazarat of the learned Civil Court at Bettiah, West Champaran, subject to such conditions as may be deemed fit and proper to be imposed by the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Bettiah at West Champaran in connection with Bettiah (Town) P.S. It is further directed that in case the informant approaches the learned court below for withdrawal of the aforesaid amount of Rs. 50,000/-, the same shall be released in favour of the informant on furnishing adequate security.

With the aforesaid observations and directions, the present petition stands disposed of.
