ORAL ORDER

2 29-01-2020 There being a judicial order dated 06.09.2019 clearly stating that no further application for modification will be entertained, the office objection is upheld.

It is evident from the materials available on the record that the petitioner has not surrendered in the court below within the extended period and also has not joined investigation. There is no question of entertaining a second modification application.

This application shall not proceed.
