CORAM: HONOURABLE MR JUSTICE MADHURESH PRASAD

ORAL JUDGMENT

Date : 20-02-2020

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the respondents.

2 Learned counsel for the petitioner, on specific query whether there is any procedural lapse in conduct of the proceedings, submits that procedure has been followed. He, however, submits that the decision is not to his liking as it is his submission that he was not responsible for the works in relation to which he has been proceeded with and awarded a minor punishment of withholding of one annual increment with non-cumulative effect.

3 The law is well settled. The scope of judicial review of this Court exercising jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India is limited to the decision making process, and not the decision itself.

4 Since, admittedly, there is no infirmity in the process leading to the decision, the writ petition is dismissed.
